WHEN I SURVEY THE WONDROUS CROSS

*When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss And pour contempt on all my pride.*

Look to the cross! The Lenten season again is with us. It brings us humbly before our Savior. Truly we have been made rich through the forgiveness of our sins, which we gained through Jesus' death. Jesus, the Prince, dying in a horrible way for the paupers' sin.

*Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to His blood.*

We owe everything to Jesus. We are saved by His grace, not of our own merit. It is a gift given to us by God. We, in gratitude, want to live for Him. The earthly things seem unimportant now. These we can sacrifice, give up. He gave His life- His sacrifice.

*See, from His head, His hands, His feet Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet Or thorns compose so rich a crown?*

His life! That's a lot! We look at His suffering, the pain of the crown of thorns on His brow, the beating, the nails through His hands and feet. The sorrow of our sins was truly His greatest pain. How could He do all this for us? Surely, we don't deserve it. But He loved us, very deeply does He love us, and this love was so great that He could do this for us!

*Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a tribute far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all!*

All the things of this world, the riches, the jewels, nothing could repay Jesus for this act of love. Love so great can only be returned by our total dedication to Him. As the hymn says, "my soul, my life, my all." To do this, we need to be repentant. We express repentance not only during Lent, but throughout the year.

Read responsively Psalm 51 (NIV) below as a prayer of repentance.
This Psalm is referred to as "The Passion Psalm."

Leader: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

ALL: Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Leader: For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
ALL: Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge.

Leader: Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
ALL: Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

Leader: Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
ALL: Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice.

Leader: Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
ALL: Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Leader: Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
ALL: Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Leader: Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
ALL: Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.

Leader: O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
ALL: You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.

Leader: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
ALL: In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem.

Leader: Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar (Ps. 51:1-19 NIV).

ALL: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
